East Coast Late Model's make their third and final appearance of the season at Fire Service Plus Nowra Speedway (NSW) Saturday February 6 with the Port Macquarie SKM Motorsport Dirt Late Model Team primed for a big effort.

"The Nowra track has been kind to us in the past so we will be looking to maintain our good form Saturday night" said team principal and driver Neil Wallace.

"We won our first Main there last season, and already have a 2nd place in the books this season. Together with some solid Heat results at our last couple of Nowra starts we are quietly confident that we will once again be one of the leading contenders for victory".

“The track preparation crew always do a good job with the Nowra surface, and the Dirt Late Model racers enjoy turning it on for the fans. It’s just a great place to compete, and I’m certain there will be plenty of wheel to wheel action served up on Saturday night” Wallace said.

The SKM Motorsport Dirt Late Model Team travelled to Mildura to compete last weekend however their efforts were thwarted by fuel pressure and msd ignition issues.
